

Symposium at Hebron University (HU) on the "International & Regional Changes and their impact on European Policy toward Palestine"

(March 9, 2023)

As part of the activities of the of the "Jean-Monnet-Module Project 2020-2023: A Foundation to build on – and a Bridge of Intercultural Understanding (FICU)" on Thursday, 9th March 2023 a symposium in the field of European studies under the title "International & Regional Changes and their impact on European Policy toward Palestine" was conducted at HU. With an audience of more than 100 persons and with Ms. Yusra Qawasma as the moderator, the symposium included three contributions with a subsequent questions and answers session and discussion:

- 1. Dr. Amjad Abu Al-Izz, on the impacts of the Russian-Ukrainian war and its impact on the Middle East and on aspects related the Palestinian issue.
- 2. Dr. Imad Bishtawi, on European right wing parties and their relation to Zionism, and:
- 3. Dr. Iyad Abu Znait, on the rise of right wing parties in the European Union and its impact on the Israeli-European relations and on the Palestinian issue.

For further information in Arabic, please visit: